IN MEMORIAM

Patricia Anne Palmer, General College freshman, died February 10, 1939. A graduate of St. Vincent's High School, she entered the University in the fall of 1938. She was a pledge of Delta Gamma sorority and a member of the Newman Club. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Palmer, and two brothers and four sisters, two of whom, Jean Palmer and William J. Palmer, are students at the University.

AKRON 38—WABASH 0

Coach Jimmy Aiken's third season as football mentor was inaugurated September 24, when the Zippers rolled to a decisive 38 to 0 triumph over Wabash College. Demonstrating their superiority early in the game, the Zips left no doubt as to the final outcome. This game marked the return of fullback Al Abdulla to the Akron roster, after a year's absence. Abdulla, with quarterback Frank Zazula, led a typical Aiken power attack which pushed the lighter Indians' team down the field, to score almost at will. Several sophomores including Jim Whitten, Mike Fernella, Bob Humphrey, Steve Kossky, and Ray Sabin, in their collegiate debut played bang up ball.

WAYNE 16—AKRON 0

For the second consecutive year an outplayed Wayne University football team defeated the Zippers in Detroit. After being pushed about for three quarters, the Tartans exploded with a scoring burst, which included two touchdowns and a field goal, netting them 16 points. The Zippers' defense collapsed completely in this final quarter as Wayne scored. Zazula and Abdulla again powered the Zips, but Akron never reached pay dirt, although often threatening. The Zippers' statistical superiority is shown by their net yardage of 191 yards as compared to Wayne's 42 yards.

Below: The beginning of that last Tech touchdown as Carnegie Tech outscores Akron, 27-13.

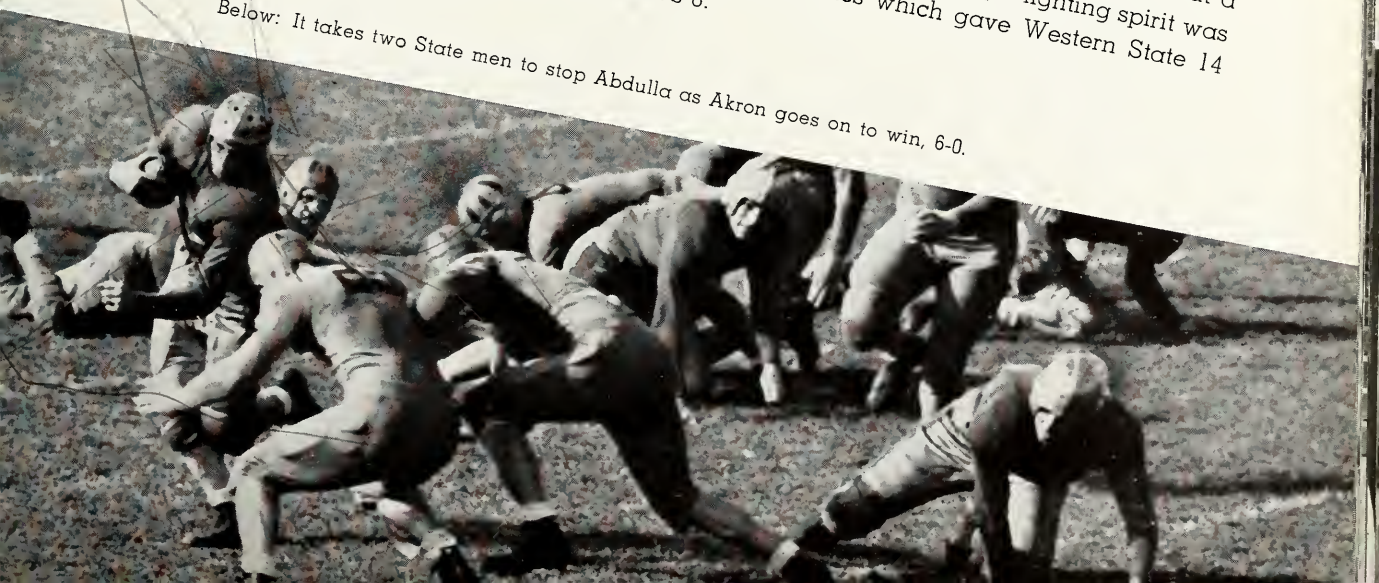
XAVIER 38—AKRON 0

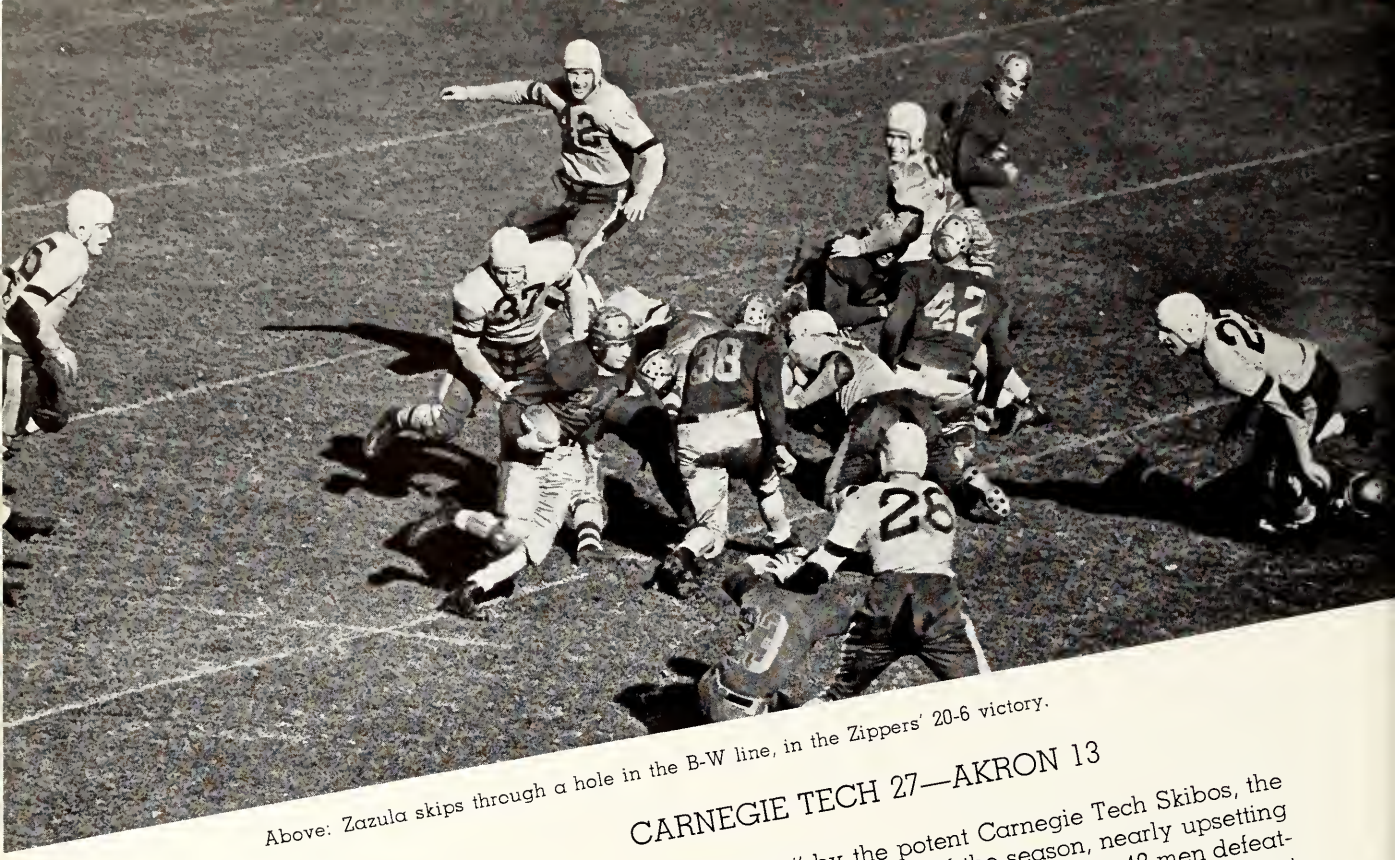
A twice-defeated Xavier eleven completely outclassed Akron, chalking up a 38-0 triumph. However, the score scarcely indicated the visitors' margin of superiority, which was more clearly seen when their net yardage of 445 yards was compared with Akron's 61 yards. Zazula, suffering from injuries received in the Wayne game, did not get into action. Simonetti suffered a broken leg during the game.

AKRON 6—WESTERN STATE 0

The Zippers came back before a homecoming crowd of 5000 fans, to defeat a strong Western State Teachers College squad 6 to 0. Akron scored early and protected its lead throughout the game. Early in the first quarter little Dave Cribs, State ace, fumbled and Akron recovered on the State 41 yard line. After three plays had carried the ball to the 30 yard line, Zazula entered the game. On the first play he passed the ball to Jim Whitten, who out-jumped three defensive men and caught the pass to provide the only touchdown. From there on the Zips played a defensive game, concentrating on the elusive Cribs. State repeatedly hammered the Zips' goal, but a determined Akron team held every time. The Zips' fighting spirit was shown more clearly by the statistics which gave Western State 14 first downs to Akron's 8.

Below: It takes two State men to stop Abdulla as Akron goes on to win, 6-0.





Above: Zazula skips through a hole in the B-W line, in the Zippers' 20-6 victory.

AKRON 20—B-W 6

Displaying tremendous ground-gaining ability, Akron trounced a helpless Baldwin-Wallace squad at Berea 20-6. Again led by Zazula and Abdulla, the Zippers kept the Yellow-Jackets on the run throughout the game. Akron did not score in the first period, but early in the second Abdulla fought his way across the B-W goal line, Humphrey converting the extra point. Zazula followed with a touchdown in the third quarter, and Sabin scored in the fourth. The lone B-W touchdown came late in the third quarter.

CARNEGIE TECH 27—AKRON 13

Scheduled as a "breather" by the potent Carnegie Tech Skibos, the Zippers gave their most gallant display of the season, nearly upsetting Coach Bill Kern's large squad. In the end, it was merely 42 men defeating 14 by a 27-13 score. Capitalizing on Condit's fumble on the first play after the Zippers' kickoff, Akron recovered on Tech's 29 yard line. Abdulla and Zazula drove for two first downs to the Skibos' 11 yard stripe. On the next play Zazula raced over Tech's right tackle to the one yard line. Climaxing the Zippers' surprise march, Abdulla scored, Humphrey converting. In the second quarter, led by Carnelly and Condit, Tech came back to march 65 yards and even the score at 7-7. Tech followed with a third-quarter march, putting them in the lead for the first time during the game, 13-7. In the fourth quarter Humphrey blocked a Tech punt and recovered on the enemy 34 yard line. Zazula then passed to Sabin for 17 yards. Four plays later, Zazula tallied to tie the score again. Humphrey failed to convert, the score remaining 13-13 with but five minutes to play. In the remainder of the last quarter, a fresh Tech team pushed the tiring Zippers to win, 27-13.

Below: The Zippers combine to box Tech deep in its own territory, only to lose, 27-13.

AKRON 21—ILLINOIS WESLEYAN 0

Led by the brilliant defensive play of Captain Walter Kominic, the Zippers turned back Illinois Wesleyan, 21-0, on November fifth. Again Abdulla and Zazula powered the offensive, each scoring once. The final touchdown came as Bob Morrison ran 50 yards to score. Bob Humphrey chalked up three conversions. Statistically, Akron's superiority was even more striking, as the Zippers rolled up 447 net yards and 19 first downs to Wesleyan's net yardage of 147 and a single first down.

AKRON 13—TOLEDO 7

All-Ohio guard Dick Miller turned pass receiver to contribute the most of Akron's offensive, as the Zips defeated Toledo, 13-7. 8500 fans agreed Akron's fighting spirit was the primary factor in the victory. A 51-yard march, powered by a 38-yard pass, set up Toledo's initial touchdown, which Beach scored to put Toledo in front, 7-0. Shortly after the Toledo kickoff, Zazula passed 30 yards to Miller, who shook off three tacklers and raced 35 yards to score, Humphrey converting. In the second period, Abdulla recovered Craig's fumble on Akron's 44. Three passes moved the ball over the goal line, Miller again scoring. Again the defensive play of Captain Kominic was outstanding. Toledo, favored by the experts, displayed as brilliant an offensive as Akron had seen all season, making a net yardage of 377 to the Zippers' 250.

Below: Toledo interference fails to open a hole in the Zips' line, losing 13-7.

AKRON 6—JOHN CARROLL 0

As a fitting climax to a successful season, the Zippers turned back the highly-touted John Carroll squad 6-0, before a crowd of 2000 fans November 19. Aided by a wet field, Coach Jimmy Aiken's heavier team literally rushed Carroll off its feet. Outplaying Carroll, the Zippers were prevented from scoring in the first half chiefly by the excellent punting of fullback Bill Young. Zazula dropped back in the third quarter and looped a spot pass to Culbertson, substitute end, which placed the ball on Carroll's five-yard line. Two plays later, Zazula roared through right tackle to score the Zippers' lone touchdown standing up. From then on Akron played defensive ball for a single-score victory. Captain Walter Kominic again led the Zippers' defense and established himself as one of the Hilltop's great football immortals in his last game.

CHEERLEADERS

Pictured below are the University cheerleaders, leading the student rooters in a "Fight Locomotive." Edward Nicely was head cheerleader during the year, John Byrider, Park Myers and Bill Barkley acting as assistants. Louise Dill and Richard Caldwell were the freshman cheerleaders, Miss Dill being the first woman cheerleader in the history of University athletics.

1938-39 BASKETBALL SEASON

With Coach Paul Bixler in his third year as director of the Blue and Gold Cagers, the Zippers successfully completed one of the most interesting and eventful seasons a University basketball team has ever faced.

Ned Endress, Frank Ferris and Jim Appleby were the only returning lettermen, although Coach Bixler had such capable men as Mike Fernella, Dick Miller, Alex Semegen and Bob Larson reporting for duty.

The squad opened the season with an unimpressive win over a weak Alfred Holbrook team at Goodyear Gymnasium by a 38-30 score. Ferris and Endress proved sparkplugs in the Akron attack. This win was the beginning of a victory parade that was to continue for seven more games.

Next team to fall victim to the Zips was the Central State Teachers. With Franky Ferris hitting the hoop from every conceivable angle for 16 points, Akron piled up a 29-23 score. The following week the Hilltoppers took the measure of Centenary to the tune of 35-25.

The Zippers looked their best the next week when they subdued a good Ohio Wesleyan five in a rough and tumble contest 47-34. Lanky Ned Endress had a field day at the visitors' expense, sifting through for 21 points. Lawrence Tech was the next victim of the rapidly improving Akron quintet by a score of 46-34. Endress, Fernella and Ferris each rang up 10 points in this game.

Perhaps the most impressive win was caged by the Zippers when they outlasted a powerful Glenville Teachers five, who came here with a record of 40 straight wins and went home on the short end of a 29-24 defeat. Fernella caged 18 points for the Zips in this fray. Akron's next foe was Baldwin-Wallace, and Akron made it seven straight with a 28-18 conquest.

Fenn was next for the Blue and Gold crew and a 49-34 score was the verdict. Bob Larson broke into the regular column and starred with 9 counters to lead scoring.

Akron's string of victories was unceremoniously broken the following week on a trip into Pennsylvania, where the team fell to a powerful Waynesburg five 49-23. Defeat number two was suffered when Glenville Teachers trounced the Zips to even the score for the year by a 35-27 score. On the third leg of their circuit the Zips again tasted defeat at the hands of Findlay in a nip and tuck battle 28-27.

The next week the Zippers faced the mighty Toledo Rockets, headed by the spectacular Chuck Chuckovits. With Hayes and Chuckovits providing a top-notch offense, the Rockets mastered the Hilltoppers 51-31 to give them their worst reversal. Endress led the Akron scoring with 10 points.

The Blue and Gold returned to the win column after four consecutive defeats by edging Ball State 29-28. Endress again led the scoring parade with 14 points.

Franklin handed Akron its fifth loss of the season 36-31 and the Zippers closed their season, routing Baldwin-Wallace again by the score of 54-37. Bob Larson scored 11 points to garner honors in this game.

Only one member of this year's great court squad will be lost to the Zippers next season. He is Jim Appleby, who has performed creditably for three years in a Blue and Gold uniform. Returning will be Ned Endress, Dick Miller, Mike Fernella, Bob Larson, Frank Ferris, Keith Culbertson, Andy Ondecker and Steve Semegen.

Akron's offensive record averaged 35 points per game while the opposition was limited to a 32 point average. Ned Endress took individual scoring honors with a total of 136 points.

1938 TRACK SEASON

The Zippers, off to an excellent start in their second season under the leadership of Coach "Doc" Smith, trimmed Fenn College 98-33 at Buchtel field in the first meet of the season. The Zips' strength was so evenly divided that Fenn took but one first place. Jim Appleby, star of last year's squad, walked off with high point honors by taking first in the pole vault, second in the high and low hurdles and third in the high jump. Don Cook and John Wagner also performed admirably for the Zippers.

Next Saturday the Smithmen gained a 91-49 decision over Geneva College. Appleby was again high point man with 14 markers to his credit, while Cook and Frank McIntyre scored 10 points apiece. Other first places were won by John Hower and Bill Henterly in the mile and two mile, respectively, and Carl Tsaloff and Joe Zemla in the discus throw and shot put.

The following week the Toledo Rockets nosed out the Zipper scantyclads 66-65 in a hard fought victory that was not decided until the final event.

Akron then snapped back into the winning column by defeating McDonnell A. C., a strong aggregate of former high school and college athletes from Cleveland, to the tune of 75-56. Akron's first places were taken by Hower, Parker, Cook, Henterly, Vosper, and the relay team composed of Chamberlain, Parker, Berry and Hower. Appleby tasted defeat for the first time in his college career in his favorite event, the pole vault.

The following week, the Akron squad traveled to Detroit to meet the Wayne University Tartars, only to have the meet cancelled because of a driving rain off Lake Michigan.

On May 21 the thinclads traveled to Berea to take part in the Big Four invitational meet. Akron emerged fifth with a total of 28 points. Bill Henterly, sophomore distance man, took Akron's only first place by nosing out Don Rapp, also of Akron, in the two mile event. Other point winners were: Joe Zemla, John Hower, Stanley Edwards, Jim Appleby, Frank McIntyre, Don Cook, Bill Sturgeon and Frank Zazula.

As a special post season attraction, a varsity-freshman meet was held in which the varsity came out on the long end of a 79-61 score. Bob Morrison stood out for the frosh by taking firsts in the 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes.

The following men were awarded letters at the end of the season: Appleby, McIntyre, Berry, Cook, Sturgeon, Zazula, Zemla, Tsaloff, Hower, Henterly, Baird, Parker, Rapp and Nicely. Robert Higley was awarded a manager's letter.

MINOR SPORTS

VARSITY GOLF

Captain William Eichleberger and his 1938 golf team of Serge Migdal, Jack Lahrmer, Fred Pamer and Andrew Gardasko finished the season with two wins and four losses, in addition to competing in the state meet at Columbus.

Wayne University and Grove City fell to the Zipper squad 12-4 and 14-2, respectively. The Blue and Gold bowed to Ohio State 14-2, Wayne 10-8, and lost both matches with Western Reserve by a 9-7 count.

FRESHMAN SWIMMING

The freshman swimming team, although failing to win a meet, gave promise of better performance next year. Captained by Edward Smith, the team consisted of Carl Hersman, George Pescan, Arthur Larson, Robert Jansen, William Crain, James Owens, William Cattran, Richard Hoose and Jack Turner.

VARSITY RIFLE TEAM

This year, the varsity rifle team fired shoulder to shoulder matches with Ohio State, Carnegie Tech, University of Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania State College. Postal matches were fired with eighteen colleges throughout the country.

Coached by Technical Sergeant William Brown, the team included Milton Klotz, William Koerschner, Robert Singer, William Markey, Nevin Brothers, Ben Logan, Albert Swift, Allen Arbogast, Jack Hart, Vance Luke, Leroy Gunning, Joseph Whitmer, Frank Streid, Thomas Christy, Frank Graves and Edgar Smith.

GYM TEAM

With an increased minor sports budget, the gym team enjoyed one of its most successful seasons, participating in eleven exhibitions at several city high schools and during intermissions at the Zipper home basketball games.

VARSITY SWIMMING

The University of Akron swimming team, captained by Angy James, ended a disastrous season with 6 losses without a win. Losses were handed the aquatic team by Ohio U, 40-34 and 43-32; by Western Reserve 50-20; by Slippery Rock 40-35 and again 38-36 in the last meet of the year, and another by Fenn College 40-35. In addition to James the aquatic squad consisted of the following men: Norman Elder, Dale Bradley, Robert Miller, Robert Smith, Albert Swift, Hale Bump, Frank Zazula, Mike Pavlov and Dick McCarthy.

VARSITY WRESTLING

The Varsity wrestling team ended its season with three wins and four losses. Victories were won over Findlay College 20-16; Barberton High 38-0 and Barberton Recreation 28-6. Andy Maluke was captain of the Zipper team and Jack Blue, George Pescan, William Haines, Harry Brediger, Milton Polstein, Russell Shaw, Dallas Riddle, Carl Moskoff, Dick Heidman, Victor June, Eugene Finks, Walter Grigas, and Francis Bowden were other members of the team. This is the first season in four years that the hilltop had varsity wrestling.

MEN'S INTERCLASS and INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

INTRAMURAL SWIMMING

Collecting a total of 44 points, the Non-Frats again won the intramural swimming meet. The Beta Kappas had 32 points to place second while the Lambda Chis were third with 18½.

INTRAMURAL BOWLING

Winning 17 games and dropping but 4, the Lambda Chis took the intramural bowling cup for the second straight year. Alvis Isner, Lambda Chi kegler, had the highest individual average in the league.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

A powerful Lone Star quintet swept through the season, marking up eight consecutive victories, to take its second straight intramural basketball title.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

Edging the frosh 31-28, a surprising senior outfit romped to easy wins over the sophomores and juniors to take first place in the interclass basketball competition. This same team also won the championship as sophomores.

INTRAMURAL TABLE TENNIS

Angy James was crowned the individual ping pong champion of the University after defeating Bernard Rosen in the finals. The Phi Kappa Tau team of Robert Marsh and Roscoe Menuez defeated the Phi Kappa Rho team to claim the organization doubles table tennis trophy.

INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL

Losing only one game in eight matches, the Lone Stars easily won the intramural volleyball championship. It was the second time that the Stars won the honor during the three years this sport has been on the intramural program.

INTRAMURAL BADMINTON

Fred Ayer and Jacques Burrell, carrying the Phi Delta Theta hopes with them, defeated the Phi Kappa Tau duet three games out of four, in the finals of the intramural doubles badminton tournament. Robert Schepp flashed through to championship in the singles tourney, defeating Angy James in the play off match.

INDIVIDUAL FOUL SHOOTING WINNER

Edward Nicely won the foul shooting medal for the second consecutive year by winning over Nick Pappas in the shoot off after each were tied at the end of the regular competition.

INTRAMURAL BASEBALL

Edging the Lone Stars 2-1, last spring in the titular playoff game, the Engineers annexed the intramural softball championship. A unique sidelight in the league race occurred when Paul Appleby, Phi Kappa Tau southpaw, pitched a no-hit game against the Beta Kappas but lost 1-0.

INTRAMURAL GOLF

After being tied at the end of the regular season, the Lone Stars decisioned the Lambda Chis in a well-played match to grab the intramural golf championship.

INTRAMURAL TRACK

A well balanced Phi Delta Theta team romped off with the intramural track championship totaling 47 points, edging the Lone Stars who placed second with 45 points. Non-Frat took third place honors.

WOMEN'S INTERCLASS and INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

W. A. A. BOARD OF CONTROL

Virginia Thompson, Arts College senior, heads the Executive Board of Control of the Women's Athletic Association. Other officers are: Beatrice Friedman, corresponding secretary; Marian Logue, recording secretary, and Adelaide Karr, treasurer. Membership in the W. A. A. is open to any woman on the campus who attends three practices in any major or minor sport, and shows interest in promoting women's athletics on the campus.

INDIVIDUAL FOUL SHOOTING

Olga James emerged victorious in the individual foul shooting, with 24 of 40 shots parting the nets. Sarah Cooley with 22 and Mary Lou Boggins with 21 were the runners-up.

INTRAMURAL AND INTERCLASS VOLLEYBALL

Theta Upsilon copped the intramural volleyball tournament, winning over Non-Sorority in the finals. Members of the winning team were: Alice Niestockel, Faith Sherman, Virginia Johnson, Marilyn Foss, Florence Brooks and Ariadne Foss.

A freshman girls' team provided a major upset at the outset of the season by trouncing the senior squad for the class volleyball trophy. The defeat marked the first for the senior girls in their four years of competition in volleyball. Team members were: Ruth Bixler, Catherine Byrne, Kathleen Bell, Rachel Conn, Jeanette Cooper, Mildred Hancock, Neva Rossiter and Mary Smanto.

BADMINTON

Beatrice Friedman triumphed over Alice Niestockel in a hard-fought game to cinch the badminton singles championship. Revella Sholitan and Miss Friedman combined to best all contestants in the open doubles championship. Miss Sholitan and Adelaide Karr out-battled Delta Pi Iota to win the coveted trophy for the Non-Sorority women.

TABLE TENNIS

In the open doubles division, Olga James and Suzanne Israel out-paddled all others to capture the medals. Marie Schick emerged the victor in the singles tournament, defeating Olga James for the crown. The doubles team of Marie Schick and Julia Mikis, playing for Non-Sorority, won the intramural title.

INTRAMURAL BOWLING

Alice Niestockel and Ariadne Foss, bowling for Theta Upsilon, won the first annual keglers' tournament.

TENNIS

Phi Mu triumphed over Kappa Kappa Gamma to win the tennis doubles tournament. Mary Louise Gunsolus and Curtice Gregory provided the winning team. The singles tournament, held in May, 1938, was won by Curtice Gregory. June Martin was runner-up.

INTERCLASS AND INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

For the fourth consecutive year the class of '39 defeated all other contestants to win the interclass trophy. Members of the victorious team were: Letitia Cunningham, Virginia Thompson, Alice Niestockel, Catherine Ebbert, Rose Sourek, Elizabeth Horvath, Catherine Blechl, Ruth Kinney, Ariadne Foss, and Bennette Chesnut.

Alpha Gamma Delta captured the laurels in the intramural cage contest, coming out on top of a field of six contenders for the title. Alpha Gam cagers were: Virginia Thompson, captain and high point winner; Doris Renner, Jean Heilman, Betty Frick, Eleanor Schimp and Mary Alice Thornton. Non-sorority took second place and Kappa Kappa Gamma third.

ARMY-NAVY GAME

The annual women's cage classic, the Army-Navy game, was held on recognition night, March 16, with Navy taking Army to the tune of 39-36. Virginia Thompson, Navy captain, led the scoring with 20 points, while Mary Lou Boggins connected for 15 markers. Alice Niestockel, Army captain, duplicated Miss Thompson's scoring record for the cadets.

Members of the Navy team were: Virginia Thompson, Mary Lou Boggins, Florine Batman, Bess Graham, Katherine Byrne, Catherine Ebbert, Wanda Hale and Bennette Chesnut. Army cagers were: Alice Niestockel, Isabel Haddad, Eleanor Schmidt, Ruth Kinney, Mary Alice Thornton, Jane Scheffler, Doris Renner and Rachel Conn.

WOMEN'S "A" AWARD WINNERS

Letitia Cunningham, Alice Niestockel and Virginia Thompson were chosen the three outstanding women in the field of athletics by a committee of the W. A. A. Executive Board of Control. They were presented with their awards during the last week of school at the senior farewell party. Awards were made on the basis of skill, participation, scholarship, sportsmanship, service to the organization, and other extra-curricular activities.

The Buchtelite is published semi-weekly during the college year. It has been awarded the title of OHIO'S BEST SEMI-WEEKLY COLLEGE PAPER for seven consecutive years and was designated "All American," highest rating in the nation, by the Associated Collegiate Press. The Buchtelite celebrated its fiftieth anniversary with a week of celebration, including a tea dance, open house in the Buchtelite office, and a banquet and dance attended by many past editors of the Buchtelite.

THE RALLY COMMITTEE

Under the leadership of James Brown, chairman, the Rally Committee conducted pep rallies before each home football game. Other Rally Committee members were Lettia Cunningham, Ruth Heyburn, John Byrider and Paul Buzzi.

THE DANCE COMMITTEE

Planning and arranging University dances throughout the year, the Dance Committee sponsored a series of monthly tea dances. Dance Committee members, elected in the fall, were Alvis Isner, chairman, James Brown, Robert Hunt and Louise Jobe.

THEATRE

The highlight of the University Party on Founder's Day was provided by the Theatre's rendition of Dr. Gray's University skit. In March the Theatre returned to the Y. W. C. A. boards to present "Ten Minute Alibi." The climax of the Theatre's most successful season came with its performance of John Balderston's fantasy, "Berkeley Square" in May.

EVENING THEATRE

Membership in the Evening Theatre is open to all Evening Session students. The Evening Theatre presents a three-act play each semester, in addition to many one-act plays at semi-monthly meetings. This season "Mystery at Greenfingers" was presented the first semester and "Washington Jitters" the second semester.

In October the Cloudhoppers sponsored the Midwest Flying meet at Akron Airport, competing against student pilots from Detroit University and Lawrence Institute of Technology, to take their second Midwest meet. During the winter the Cloudhoppers experimented with ski-equipped planes, and purchased a Piper Sport Cub in April. Cloudhoppers plan to attend the Midwest Flying meet at Kenyon College in May, as well as the National Intercollegiate Flying meet there in June. This summer the Piper Sport Cub will be equipped with radio and blind flying instruments for cross-country flights.
